Words from Chairman

In today's interconnected world, success knows no borders. We are no longer confined by the boundaries of a nation—we compete on a global stage. To thrive in this dynamic landscape, individuals must be equipped with the skills, vision, and confidence to innovate and lead.

As both an entrepreneur and an employer, I understand what it takes to build a successful career and create impactful businesses.

At D.A.V. Business School, we nurture aspiring professionals and entrepreneurs who are ready to adapt, grow, and excel amid change.

Our mission goes beyond teaching; we ignite inspiration. We instill essential hard and soft skills while cultivating a passion for discovery and excellence. As Albert Einstein rightly said, "Imagination is everything. It is the preview of life's coming attractions." We empower our students to imagine boldly and acquire the tools to transform dreams into reality.

DAV stands apart in translating ambition into achievement. I firmly believe that by choosing DAV, you've made a life-changing decision. Here, you will be mentored by accomplished minds and supported by a community dedicated to your growth.

Welcome to the journey. May your time at DAV shape not only your career, but your character.

Warm wishes!

Few Words from Research Cell

In the light of MBA, it is incontrovertibly recognized that our graduates must be well-prepared to be valuable members of a rapidly changing business society that requires participative and responsible leaders. For a sustainable growth, quality knowledge and marketable skills are necessary to reinforce our human capital. Given this context, DAV's Research Cell plays a vital role in advancing this institution as a center of excellence, fulfilling the national goal of education, objectives of the university and the vision of DAV Business School in collective venture.

The Research Cell serves as the academic backbone, fostering research-driven mindsets that fuel intellectual growth and value creation. Higher education urgently requires strong research practices to overcome every challenge. D.A.V. Business School promotes interdisciplinary research which generates innovative ideas and helps create prudent entrepreneurs and competent professionals for this and the next century.

In addition, the DAVBS Research cell has been designed to support MBA students by providing the basics of research requirements, ideas for business startup, fundamentals of innovation, essence of policy dialogues and review practices, discussions on emerging issues of various potential areas of management, and tips for development equipping graduates to tackle challenges across diverse areas in a changing global context.

Besides, Research Cell approach is not only concentrated on preparing entrepreneurs but also is deeply and keenly invested in raising expertise and providing exposure of students to global standard through regular international conferences, seminars and consortium. Hence, it is hugely harmonized with the solid foundation of teaching-learning methodologies, competent faculties with market-driven knowledge and skills, regular interactions with professionals, national and international guest professors, live cases discussions as well as team synopsis presentations thereby placing DAV MBA program at the forefront of Nepalese academia.

In gist, DAVBS' Research Cell strives to ...

- Build research and enhance innovation capacity of faculty and students.
- Establish itself as a center of excellence in areas of research and academics
- Facilitate growth of cognitive and non-cognitive skills of our students.
- Generate innovative insights of our students and provide career guidance.
- Foster mutual collaboration with universities, colleges, public and private sectors.
- Strengthen the functioning of effective management, administration and entire system of the institution.
- Assist in monitoring and evaluation of the academic system of the institution and its policy execution.

Messages from the Executives

An MBA is not just about shaping leaders for the corporate world; it is a transformative pathway for career advancement and change. D.A.V. Business School recognizes this potential requirement and thus puts utmost emphasis on the cultivation of social and academic excellence in our students with a firm belief that everyone should have an equal opportunity to build national and international networks and to enhance their overall personality.

Further, MBA program at D.A.V. Business School is ranked among the best in Nepal since its establishment in 2010. We guide our MBA graduates with the principles of 5 Es: engage, explore, expand, excel and execute while providing abundant research avenues and experiential learning opportunities. The regular seminars on contemporary issues with presence of industry experts and world class academicians allow our graduates to apply the latest business practices in the field of management.

D.A.V. Business School is committed to creating such a learning environment where the graduates can unleash their true potentials to navigate the competitive world with ease. I would, therefore, like to invite all aspiring graduates to join DAV Business School to explore your full potential and to realize your dreams.

Mr. Rajesh Kumar Chaudhary

Our Guiding Principles

Engage

After being the member of DAV Business School students make a psychological investment in learning. They take pride not only in learning the formal indicators of success but also in understanding the material which they bring into practice. They focus on intellectual growth and engage themselves in the achievement of higher aims.

Explore

DAV Business School's inter-disciplinary curricula draw on Marketing, Finance, Global Management and Human Resource Management. Far from being locked into a fixed curriculum, students work with faculty members on a plan of study that is personally meaningful.

Expand

Students and faculty alike reach a new level of self-awareness and new possibilities for making a greater difference to the society.

Excel

It is instilled into the mind of our graduates that it is a world where only the fittest survives and, therefore, D.A.V. has modified its MBA program in a special way so that the graduates can excel in their professional life.

Execute

Many of our MBA graduates have advanced their careers as nonprofit and for-profit leaders business professionals, organizational consultants, executive coaches, human resource managers, and university professors.

Thesis Work

All students enrolled in the MBA program are required to submit a compulsory thesis/dissertation at the end of the fourth semester as part of the degree completion requirements as per the university guidelines. The thesis is a critical component of your academic journey, designed to assess your research, analytical, and problem-solving skills in a business context. Failure to adhere to these guidelines may result in disqualification from receiving the degree.

Our Study Model

Our teaching/learning model is based on a deep understanding of the principles of learning. We value the exchange of ideas and accommodate the lifestyle needs and learning preferences of active professionals.

Corporate Practice

Students and faculty members discuss real corporate scenarios and practices - promoting class participation through case studies, presentation and research activities, etc.

Mentorship

Students are guided by and learn from accomplished faculty members who are devoted to interdisciplinary research, ethics and social justice.

Self-Direction

From personal learning plans and dissertation topics, students combine program requirement with their unique interest, experiences and passions.

Group/ Teamwork

Students are encouraged to collaborate in small groups within a vibrant learning community, enriching one another's perspectives and practices without any restrictions. Together with an actively engaged faculty, they create a synergistic learning environment.

Preferences

A wide array of individual and group learning opportunities allow students to pursue their degree in ways that best fit their careers and preferences. Students can enrich themselves by participating in various workshops, research seminars, and interactions with faculty and peers.

Active Involvement

Students are expected and encouraged to actively participate and involve in classroom discussions.

Connecting Theory and Practice

DAV Business School provides a dynamic learning environment for those who value traditional classroom learning as well as on-field assignments. Faculty members' style of teaching stresses on both the theory and the practical. This approach infuses traditional academics with innovative ideas, and new methods of learning and teaching.

We provide an opportunity-rich environment where students can determine the path to explore their abilities and determine their outcome. Our role is to assist them in their journey.

Seminar Series Course

The MBA program provides additional exposure for students in the emerging areas of management through seminars. These seminar courses are offered for semesters II, III & IV (specialization area). Students have to attempt three seminars from a list of options, of which the first two are of general type having two credit hours each and the third one has three credit hours which is in the area of specialization chosen. DAV Business School Research Cell facilitates seminar series course as per the syllabus given by Purbanchal University. DAVBS consults with the Dean, Faculty of Management of Purbanchal University before implementing the additional and specialization seminar courses of the concerned semester.

DAVBS will recommend the seminar faculty its course convener from the Dean office along with resume of the individual and the course design. After the approval of the course convener's name from the Dean office, the individual should prepare a detailed syllabus, program and procedure of conducting seminar in order to implement it in full-fledge.

Students are given one-week extensive classes on the particular topic chosen and they have to present a synopsis for the seminar report. The seminar week is kept free from the regular courses. At this time, final reports are presented, including - concept, literature, objectives, research design and methods, formulations of questionnaire, data analysis, findings, conclusions, recommendations etc.

Students will defend their VIVA VOCE of the seminar report in front of external examiners recommended by the University and a panel of evaluation committee of the college. The college will organize the seminar and VIVA VOCE on the stipulated dates. The performance of the students is evaluated on a 100 marks basis. Marks obtained by them shall be sent to the Dean office along with a copy of an original seminar report and its CD copy for the purpose of recording and filling the obtained scores in the original transcript issued by the Office of the Examination Management of Purbanchal University.
